

Can a Volunteer Mentor help you with your job search?

Contact Workplace Connections at MOSAIC to learn how!

Would you like to:

- Develop your understanding of Canadian workplace culture?
- Build professional networks?
- Find information about obtaining accreditation for professional training?
- Improve your professional English skills?
- Master self-marketing techniques?
- Discover education opportunities, and professional development?
- Identify potential employers?

MOSAIC's Workplace Connections Program matches job-seeking newcomers with Volunteer Mentors. The volunteers have lived in Canada for many years, know a lot about Canadian life and culture and really want to help you.

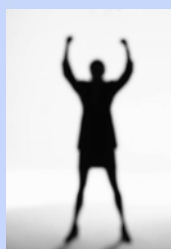

Who can participate in this program?

This program is best suited for newcomers who:

- Have ELSA level 4
- Have a case manager
- Have an employment goal
- Be actively seeking work

Is there a fee?

This program is free of charge.

Workplace Connections

for new immigrants & refugees

How to get started:

Contact Workplace Connections for information or an application form:

mentors@mosaicbc.com

MOSAIC 604-254-9626

www.mosaicbc.com